

COURSES OFFERED ON WORKERS' COMPENSATION AND OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY

This list is offered as a convenience to people searching for classes related to workers' compensation. The Commission does not endorse any of these programs. Please contact the vendor for more information.

-----WORKERS' COMPENSATION-----

AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

https://commerce.ama-assn.org/store/?node_id=nn1402

The AMA offers classes on the Guides to Impairment, used in the assessment of Permanent Partial Disability awards.

CHICAGO BAR ASSOCIATION

312/554-2056

www.chicagobar.org/AM/Template.cfm?Section=CLE

The CBA offers in-person and online training programs that earn Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit.

COUNCIL ON EDUCATION IN MANAGEMENT

800/942-4494

www.ilwcforum.com/

This group hosts an annual workers' compensation forum.

ILLINOIS SELF-INSURERS ASSOCIATION

312/804-3534

www.illinoisselfinsurance.org

Each spring, ISIA attorneys review w.c. legal terms in the "Nuts and Bolts Series," held in the western suburbs. It is designed to help individuals investigate, document, evaluate, and resolve claims.

Each fall, the ISIA also holds a two-day annual conference in the north suburbs. Topics have included cumulative trauma, a review of recent court cases, surveillance, etc.

ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

800/252-8908

www.isba.org/cle

The ISBA offers in-person and online training programs that earn Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit.

ILLINOIS TRIAL LAWYERS ASSOCIATION

800/252-8501

www.iltla.com

The ITLA offers in-person and online training programs that earn Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit.

LRP CONFERENCES

800/727-1227

www.lrpconferences.com

LRP puts on a large, three-day National Workers' Compensation and Disability Conference in Chicago. There are classes on safety, legal issues, claims management, and return-to-work issues.

LORMAN EDUCATION SERVICES

866/352-9539

www.lorman.com

Courses have been offered in the Belleville, Chicago, Champaign, and Springfield areas.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY/WORKERS' COMPENSATION CENTER

517/432-2209

www.lir.msu.edu/wcc

In-person courses and webinars are offered.

NATIONAL COUNCIL ON COMPENSATION INSURANCE

<https://www.ncci.com/nccimain/pages/default.aspx>

The NCCI holds a free State Advisory Forum every year near O'Hare Airport that reviews workers' compensation insurance information. Webinars are also available on its website.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAWYERS ASSOCIATION

www.wcla.info

The WCLA puts on monthly lunchtime classes, a fall medical program, and various other seminars that earn Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit.

-----OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY-----

CONSTRUCTION SAFETY COUNCIL

708/554-2082 www.buildsafe.org

The CSC puts on an annual construction safety conference in February, and offers the OSHA 10-hour course for the building trades, classes in CPR, fall protection, silica, etc.

GREAT LAKES CENTER FOR OCCUPATIONAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

University of Illinois/Chicago
312/413-1113 www.publichealthlearning.com/

GLC offers a variety of programs in asbestos, ergonomics, occupational medicine, OSHA compliance, etc. As a NIOSH Educational Resource Center and a World Health Organization (WHO) Collaborating Centre, it offers a number of special resources. It also offers an Injury and Workers' Compensation Analysis Program intended to prevent accidents and lower costs.

NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

630/285-1121 www.nsc.org

The NSC offers classes in accident investigation, confined space safety, electrical safety, ergonomics, industrial hygiene, job analysis, lockout/tagout, OSHA's 10- and 30-hour construction programs, safety techniques, etc. The Advanced Safety Certificate (ASC) is awarded to individuals who complete certain courses. The NSC is also willing to answer phone calls regarding safety issues.

SAFETYMAN HERE-I-AM

815/337-7785 www.safetyman.com

Safetyman conducts OSHA-authorized safety training programs, as well as safety audits and accident investigations.