Chairman Fratianni called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. Mr. Basurto moved to approve the minutes of the April 7, 2015 meeting, Mr. Gore seconded the motion, and the motion was approved unanimously. General Counsel Rascia stated that the only old business was to report that the Legal Department has completed its review of a complaint submitted to Executive Director Parks, and it determined that the complaint related to a party's frustration over administrative matters with a pending workers' compensation petition and that it did not allege any misconduct that would trigger further review by the Board.

For new business, General Counsel Rascia explained that there have been some resignations from the current ranks of the certified independent arbitrators, leaving only three left. Chairman Fratianni stated that the Commission intends to submit names of new candidates for certified independent arbitrator to the Board for evaluation.

Mr. Gore moved to adjourn, Mr. Basurto seconded the motion, and the motion was approved unanimously.
